From the book '200 English Topics for Discussion'.

On weekdays my working day begins early in the morning.
I usually get up at 6 o'clock.

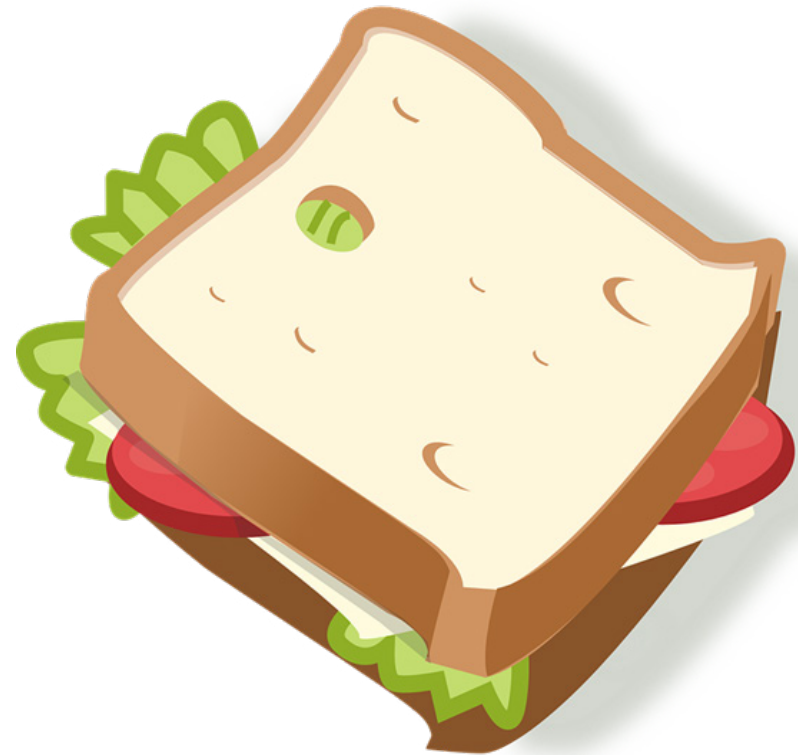

I do my morning exercises, ...

... then go to the bathroom to clean my teeth and take a warm shower.

After that I go to my bedroom to get dressed.

At a quarter past seven I have my breakfast which consists of a cup of tea and a sandwich.

I listen to the radio or watch TV news ...

... and then go to school. It takes me 15 minutes to get there.

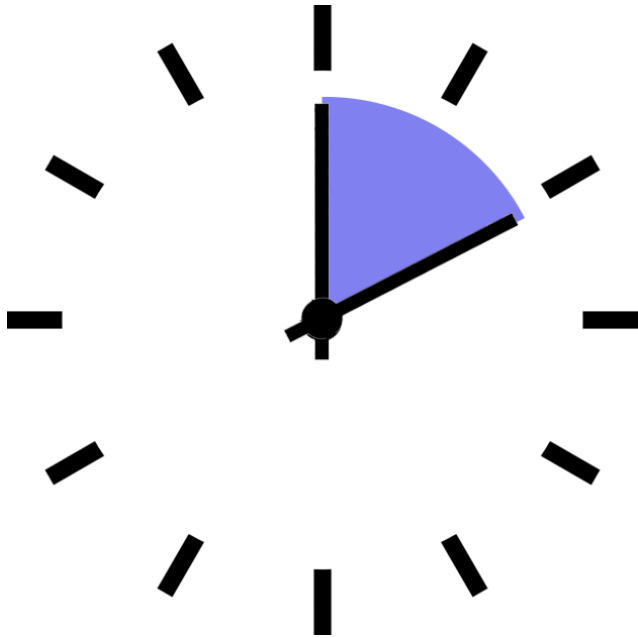

I never take a bus or a trolley bus to school.
I usually walk there.

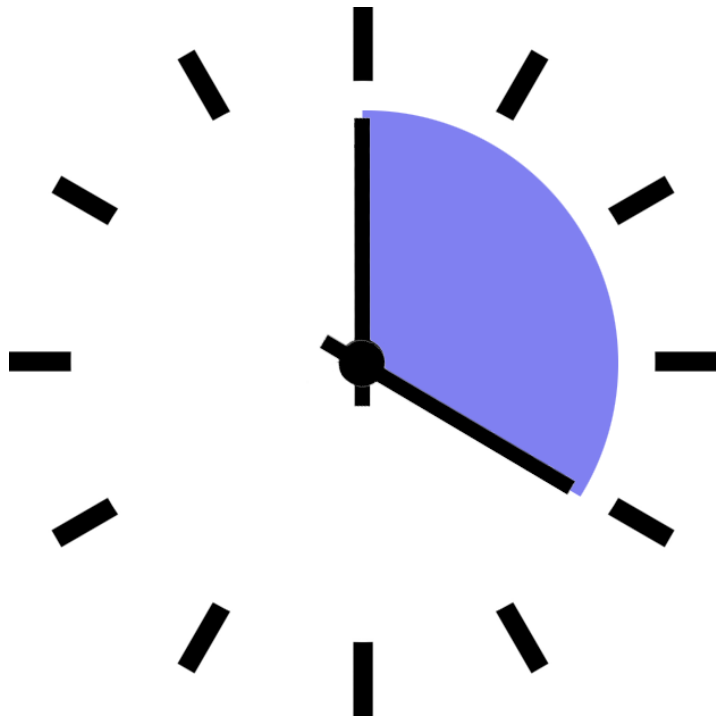

Our classes start at 8 o'clock in the morning and last till two o'clock in the afternoon.

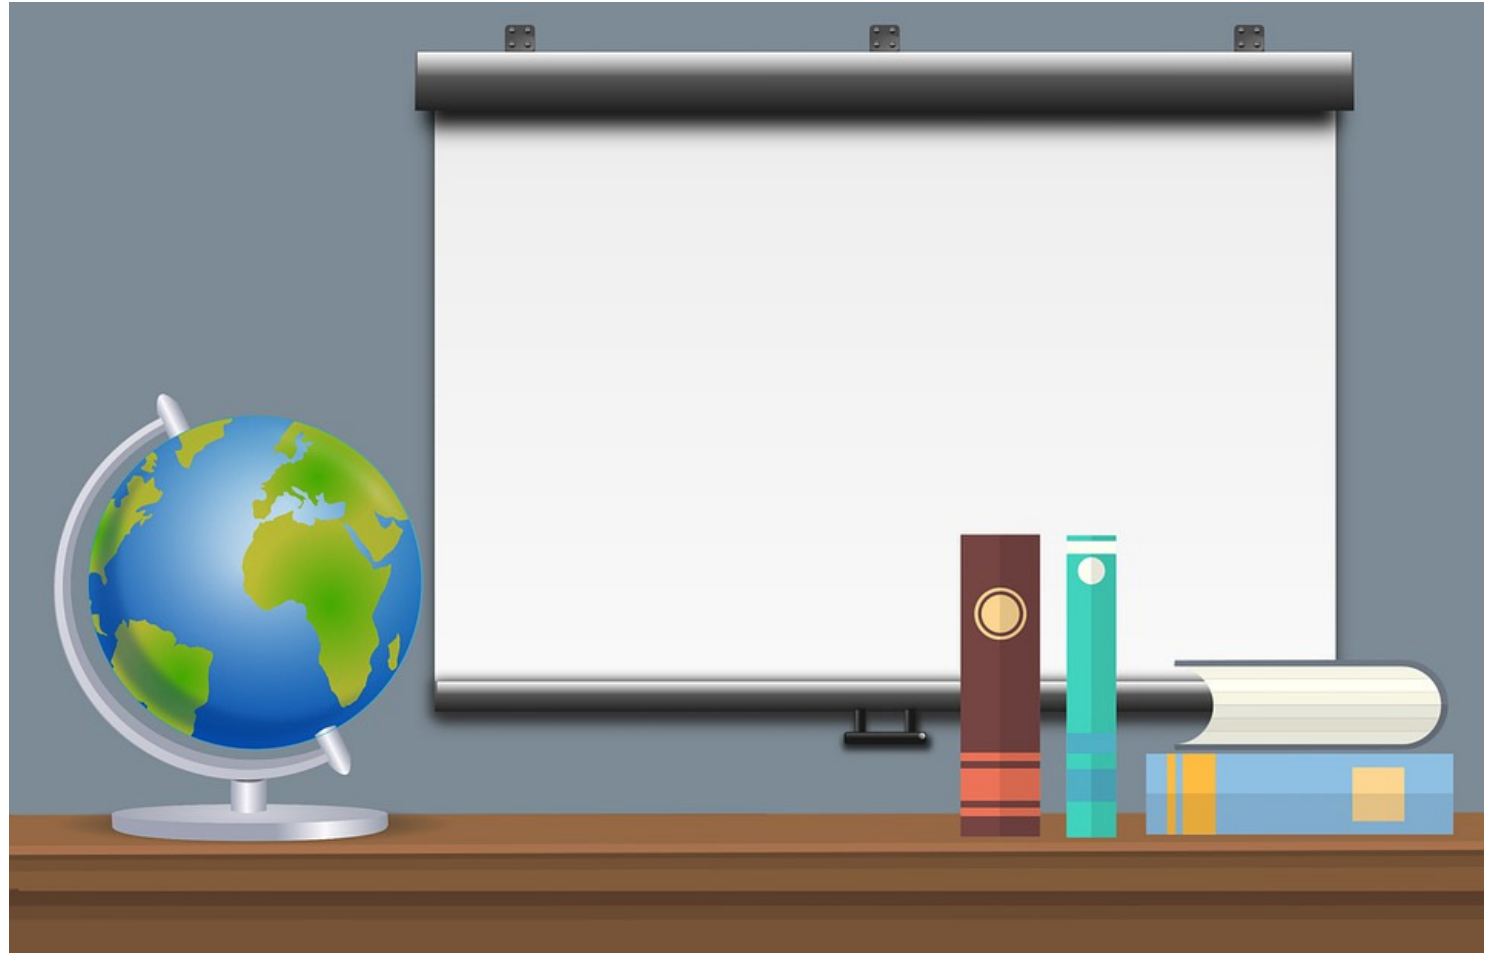

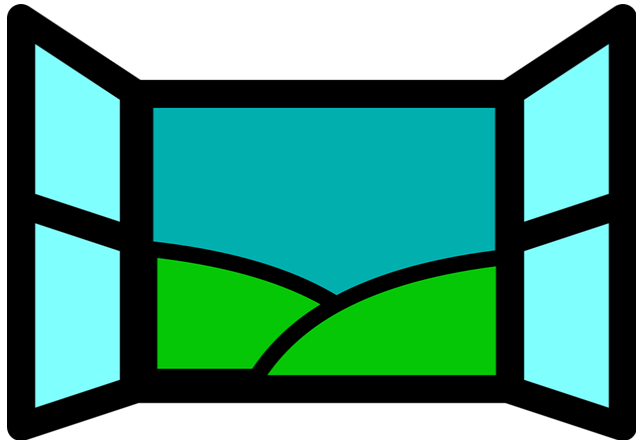

I have six lessons every day. At the lessons the pupils are very busy studying various subjects.

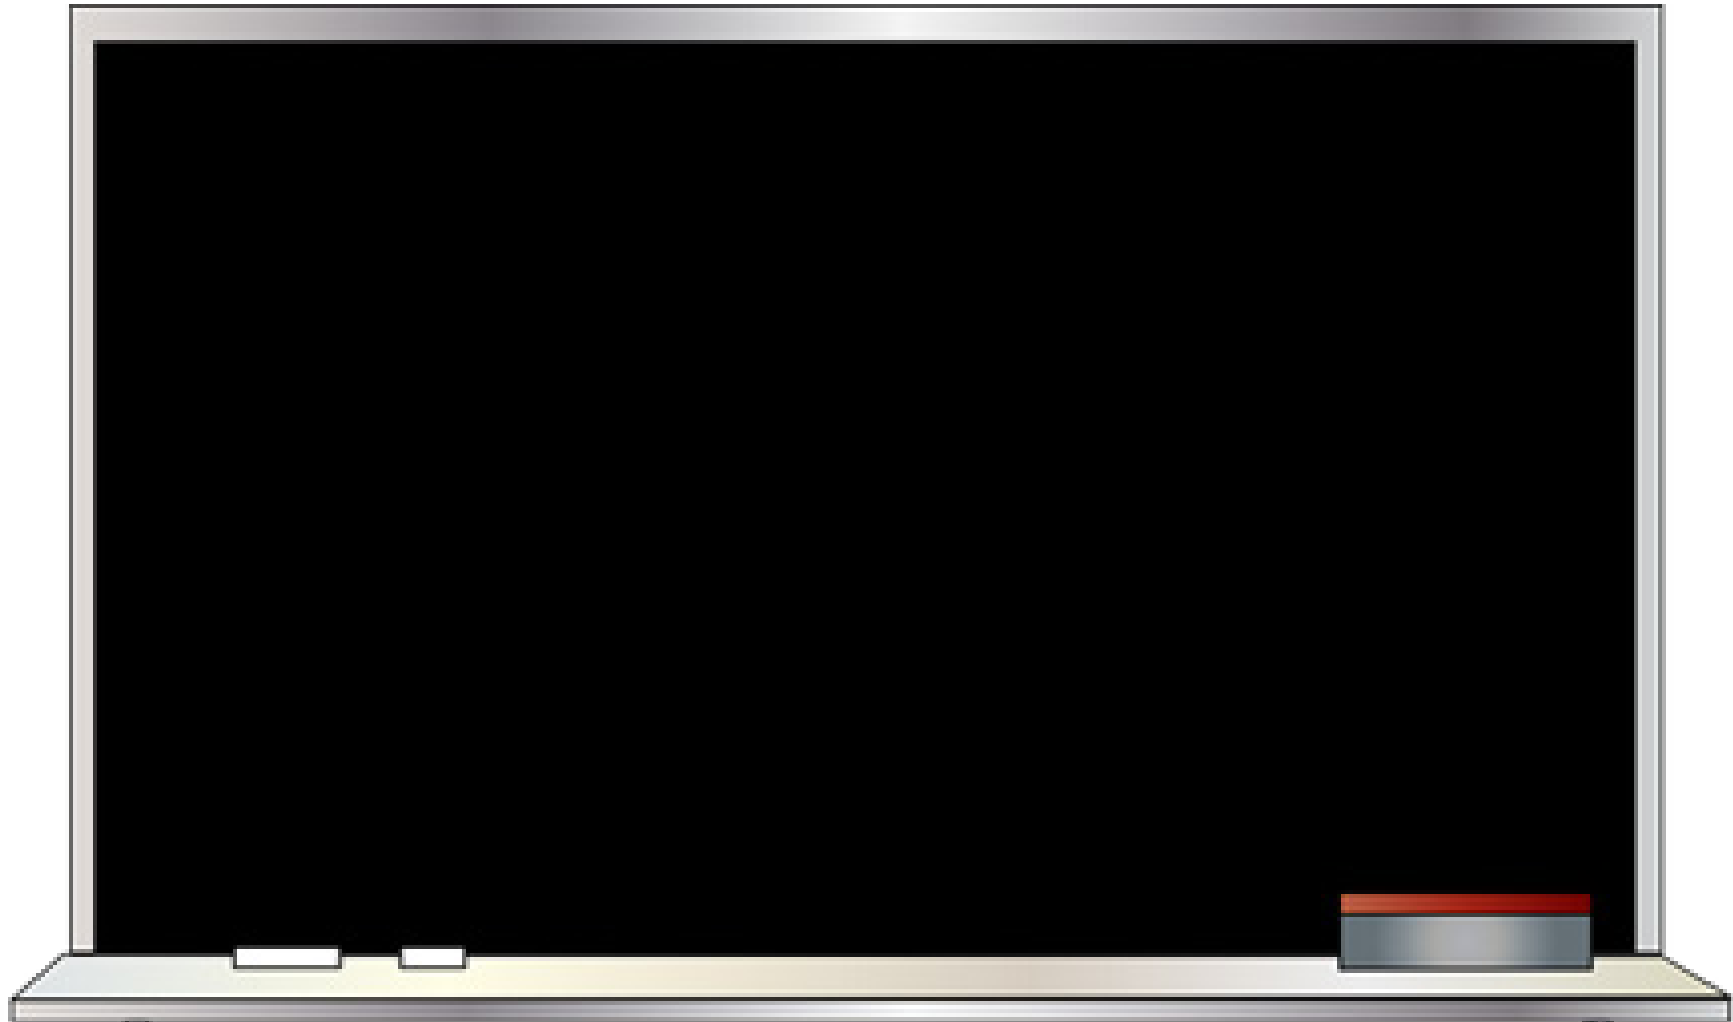

We have ten-minute breaks between the lessons.

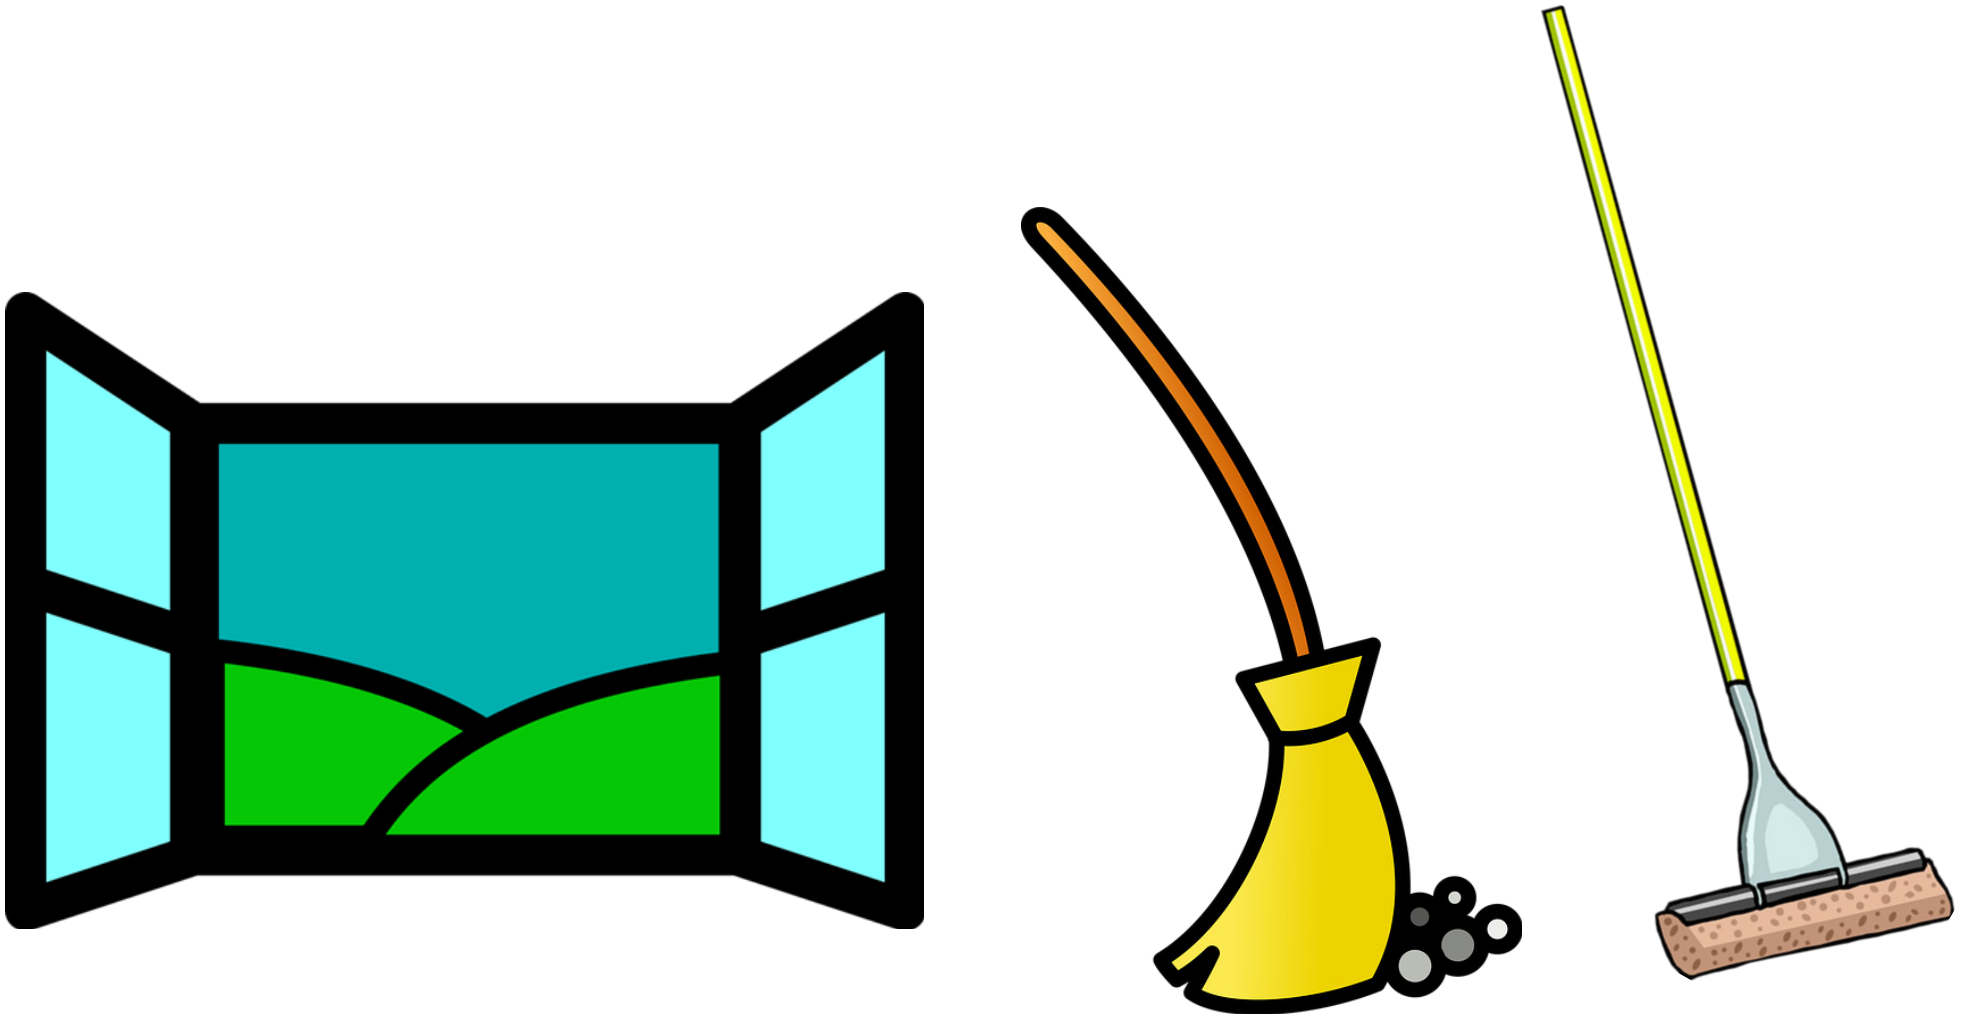

During the long breaks which are 20 minutes long we go to the school canteen and have lunch.

If I am on duty, I go to school 10 minutes earlier, because I have to air our classroom before the lessons and get everything in the room ready for the lesson.

During the breaks I clean the blackboard, wet the duster and bring the chalk.

After the lessons I air the classroom once again, sweep and clean the floor, ...

... dust the desks and the window-sills, and water the flowers.

After classes, if I have no activities, I go home and have dinner there.

After dinner I have a short rest, read news-papers and magazines, listen to music.

Then I do my homework.

We study many subjects at school and it takes me three or four hours to do my homework.

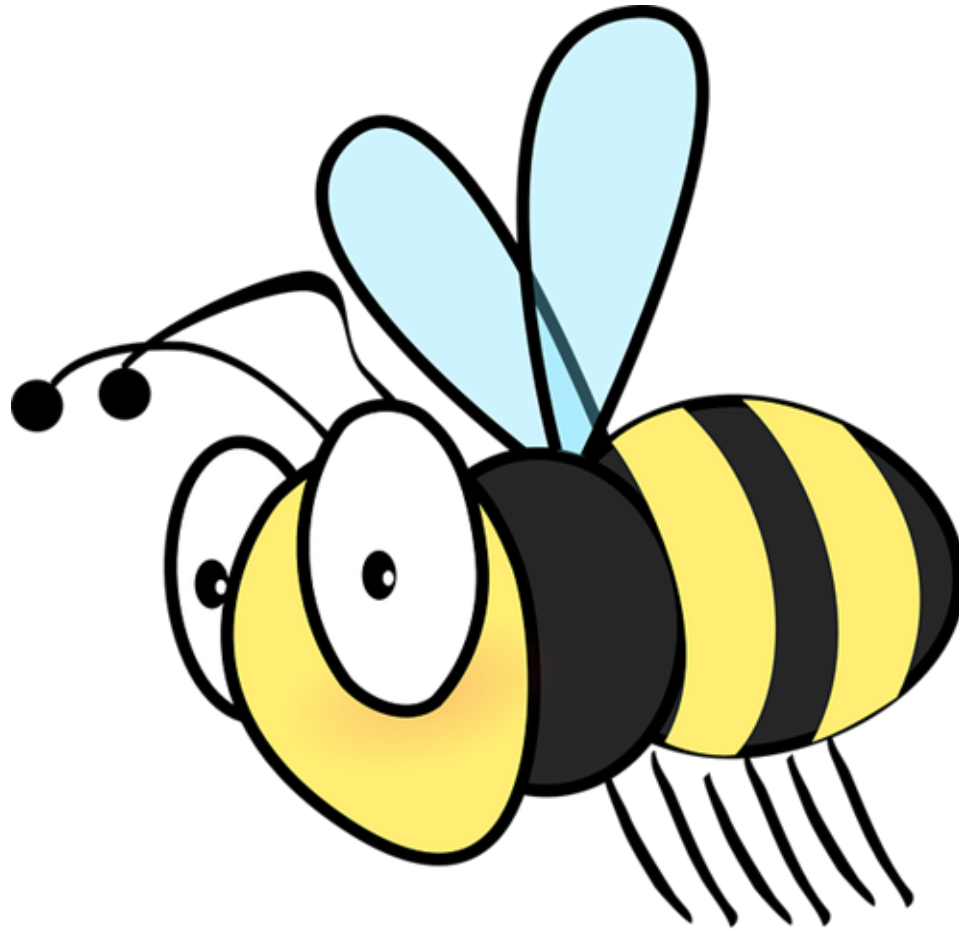

I often play with my younger brother.

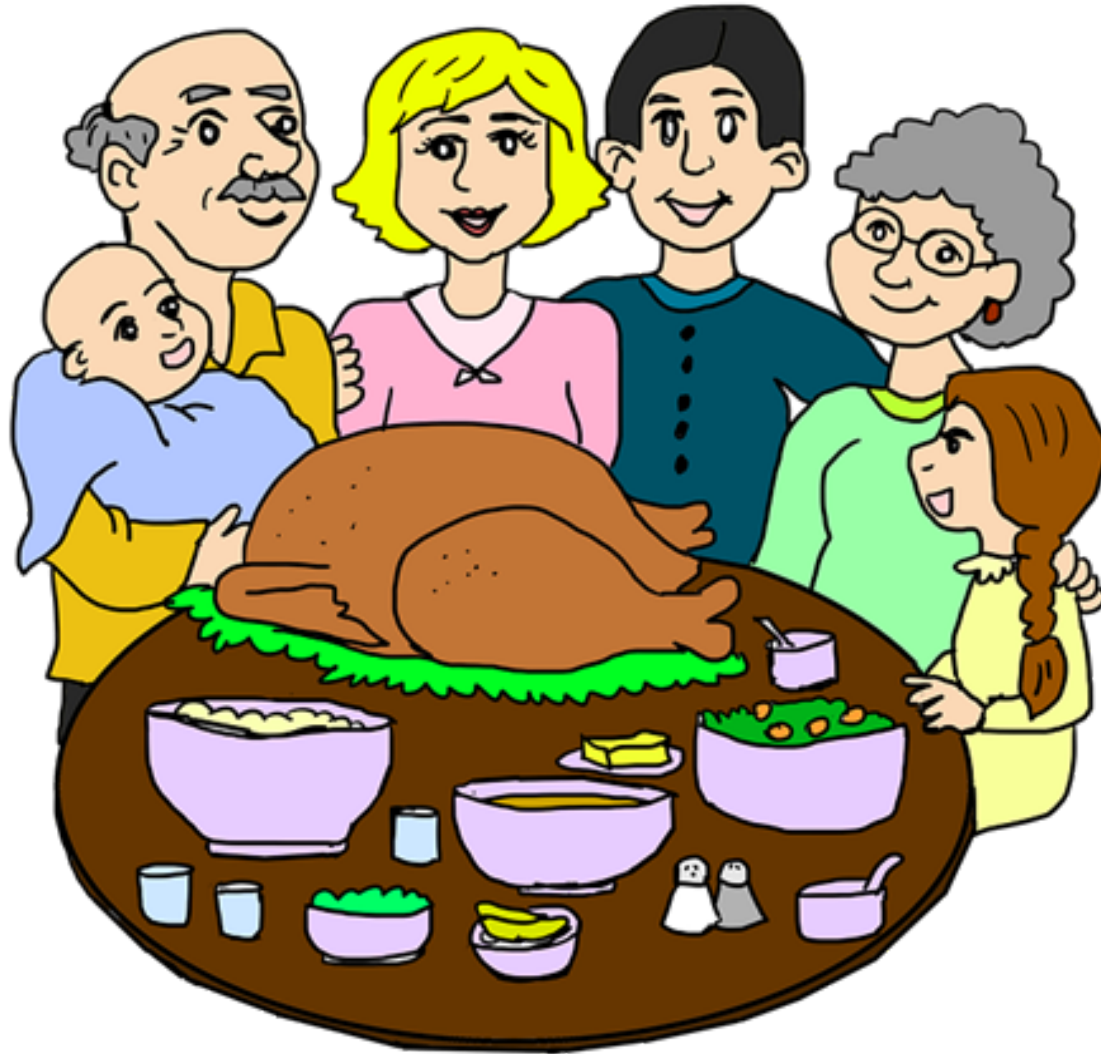

Sometimes I do the shopping and help my mother about the house.

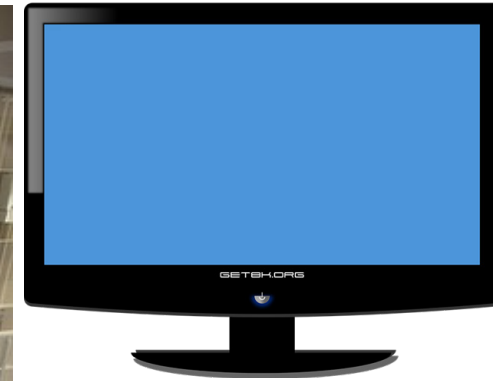

I often go to the library. I like to work there.

As a rule, I have no free time on my weekdays.

At 8 o'clock in the evening I have my supper.
All the members of our family get together in the kitchen,

... then we go to the sitting room and watch TV, read books or discuss some problems.

At 10 o'clock I go to bed.
